FOR RELEASE At will

Gideon Bachmann, Vice-president of the American Federation of Film Societies and distinguished authority on the Cinema, will speak at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Wednesday October 29 at 8:00 p.m. The topic of his lecture is THE FILM AS ART. Mr. Bachmann is editor of the AFFS NEWSLETTER and lecturer for the Creative Film Foundation.

Bachmann had extensive practical experience during the war as a press and newsreel cameraman in occupied Europe. He has written scripts for documentary and travel films and organized the FILM SERVICE BUREAU which produced films for commercial sponsors. GROUP FOR FILM STUDY INCORPORATED which won high acclaim from trade and professional circles, was started by Bachmann. He founded CINEMAGES, an excellent film periodical. The radio series FILM FORUM, a weekly New York show backed by CINEMAGES and Fordham University was another Bachmann project.

In 1956 Bachmann received a grant from the Creative Film Foundation to work on a book on experimental cinema. He has also written many articles on the Cinema which appeared in such publications as CINEMAGES and FILM JOURNAL.

The lecture is open free to the public.
